

Clowning Around at Malden Safety Day

THE Aleppo Clowns (Boss Clown) Steven "Matey" King, Paul "Lefty" Johnson and Ernie "Rollo" Pearlstein were in full dress as they added a wonderful and colorful presence at the Malden Safety Day held on April 18th, at the Malden YMCA. There was many in attendance from the various businesses located in Malden. The local restaurants supplied the food and a day of safety shows were displayed: the Middlesex Sheriff's Department had some of their officers taking fingerprints. The Malden Fire Department had safety tips and the Malden Police Department put on a dog assistance program and handed out bicycle helmets free of charge to all that were in attendance. Matey, Lefty and Rollo spent the day entertaining everyone young and old, by doing a walkaround filled with magic, balloons and general friendly conversation. A good time was had by all.

Cape Ann Shrine Club

EIGHTY Nobles and guests cruised the inner and outer Gloucester Harbors, then ventured up the Annisquam River on the Yankee Freedom during the Annual Cape Ann Shrine Club Boat Cruise on July 11, 2009. The weather cooperated despite the wet summer so far. Noble Dave Henry said that twenty minutes after he started making his way home "the heavens opened up."

There was enough shrimp and chowder to feed an army. The entertainment was a Bluegrass band, and the speeches were short and sweet.

Illustrious Potentate Robert F. Smith was presented the Fisherman at the Wheel, and Lady Helen was presented a miniature garden.

Get the golf clubs out and join the Cape Ann Shrine Club for the 32nd Annual E. Ray Kelley Golf Tournament, you can (see the ad on page 13). Over $500,000 has been raised for the Aleppo Shriners Children's Transportation Fund and the Shriners Hospitals for Children over the past 31 years of this journey.
