

ALL EYES were on the dancers from Studio 665 at the Swing Into Fall Dance on September 8, 2007, as they had dancing demonstrations during the evening.

ALEXANDRA DUNTZEE is a 4th grade student at St. Bernadette Elementary School in Northboro, MA. Together with her grandmother Deanna Bishop and Deanna's bowling league they collected approximately 200 lbs. of tabs. On behalf of the Aleppo Shrine and the children in our hospital we thank you for your huge donation of tabs.

“Soaring Into Fall”

Summer is officially over and with several more parades coming up I would like to say “welcome back.”

The Imperial Session gave us the opportunity to visit our counterparts from the other temples, Disneyland and the West Coast. Aleppo Nobles did very well as usual with our Cycle Unit coming away with three first place trophies; a first time competing clown came away with a second place trophy; and our newspaper, the Aleppo News, again won the Dromedary Award. Aleppo was given a plaque for contributing over $750,000 to the Hospital Transportation Fund.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for the conscientious way you have worked to make Aleppo move forward to become one of the top Shrines in North America. I am proud to be your Potentate, and I thank you for making this year so fulfilling.

The summer has brought myself and the Divan to many Shrine Clubs and also has given us the opportunity to visit many Nobles on a social basis and to thank them for the outstanding work they do for the Hospitals and Aleppo.

The Northeast Shrine Association is being held in Newfoundland this year, and as this issue is being printed we shall be there representing Aleppo and the incredible work that the Nobility does.

We have some more parades coming up this fall and looking forward to showing off the amazing units that we have. Keep up the good work and keep making us proud!

The Auditorium is ramping up for a busy season with lots of events being held by different vendors. As always the Provost Guard will take on the daunting task of organizing and parking the vehicles in our parking lots. They will be looking for all the help other units can give. Please contact Ken Howe if you can help.

Don't forget to look inside for the upcoming events. As always, we are having lots of fabulous things going on for our Nobility and guests during the fall and winter. I hope to see you there.
